Humboldt County

You are invited to apply for the position of Health & Human Services Social Worker IV in one of the most beautiful places in the country. A USDA comparison of natural amenities concluded that Humboldt County, with its rugged coastline and majestic redwoods, is the most scenic rural county in the U.S. The Redwood Coast is a wonderland for outdoor activities including hiking, biking, beachcombing, surfing, backpacking, camping, fishing, rafting, kayaking, golfing and much more. The county's two million acres include hundreds of streams, lakes, rivers, even lagoons, in addition to a stunningly beautiful coastline more than a hundred miles long.

Two colleges, Humboldt State University and College of the Redwoods, provide excellent educational opportunities, as well as venues for entertainment and cultural activities.

Eureka, the county seat, is located 275 miles north of San Francisco and overlooks historic Humboldt Bay, an ideal area for individuals and families in search of a more relaxed pace of life. With moderately priced housing and a lively arts scene, Humboldt County offers the best of community living without the big-city stress.

The Position

Social Worker IV is the highest classification in the Social Worker series. Incumbents at the Social Worker IV, A and B range perform casework of an advanced nature in the most complex social services areas. The casework typically requires the application of high level and sophisticated social service expertise and techniques. Incumbents at the Social Worker IV, C and D ranges additionally may perform professional level assessment, diagnosis, group, family and individual therapy and consultation.

Humboldt glows in incredible evening colors.
